Brief Biography:

Mr Dantes Leung graduated from HKU with an LLB degree in 2005 and completed PCLL in 2006. He went on to read BCL at Oxford University from 2006 to 2007. He has been admitted to practice law in Hong Kong since 2010 and in England and Wales since 2014. He is now practicing law as a litigation solicitor with a major US law firm. Besides his full-time law practice, he also taught law as a part-time lecturer in 2010, 2015-16. At leisure, he is passionate about travelling and gastronomy.

The escalating political pressure surrounding the University prompts Dantes to stand as a candidate for the election of Standing Committee of the HKU Convocation. From the rejection of the recommendation to appoint Professor Johannes Chan as Pro Vice Chancellor to the abrupt and premature resignation of Professor Mathieson as President and Vice Chancellor, it is clear that the University comes under unprecedented illegitimate political interference with its day-to-day management and governance. Dantes shares the worries with the wider graduate community that the academic freedom of our alma mater will be stifled. With your voting support, he pledges to move the Standing Committee of the HKU Convocation to exercise all powers to uphold institutional autonomy and integrity and defend academic freedom.
