To the Chairman and members of the Standing Committee of the Convocation,

Further to our letter of 9 September 2019, we write to request a revision of the motion to be adopted in an extraordinary general meeting of the Convocation in accordance with Rule 3 of the Rules of Convocation:

Original version -

That the members of Convocation strongly urge the university administration to provide assistance to HKU students who have been physically and/or psychologically injured during the anti-extradition movement, and to ensure that they receive fair treatment before the law, and be free from police brutality.

Revised version -

That the members of Convocation strongly urge the university administration to adopt such measures for and render assistance to HKU students who have been physically and/or psychologically injured during the anti-extradition movement that can best ensure about their legal rights being adequately protected at trials and their injuries sustained from police brutality sufficiently redressed.
